MARKING A DAY OF HOPE

(Ms. JACKSON LEE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, first of all, I want to, as a member of the Judiciary Committee, associate myself with the Missing Persons and Unidentified Remains Act of 2019, a very vital act for dealing with families who have lost loved ones, as well as the Crisis Stabilization and Community Reentry Act, S. 3312, which deals with helping people who are incarcerated adjust back to the community.

I believe that we had a day of hope yesterday in Houston and around the world. In fact, it was not only yesterday, but it was Monday. That is when the first vaccines began to come to the Nation.

I went to the public hospital system, and I became part of UPS—that is, Pfizer vaccines that I was able to lift at the Lyndon Baines Johnson Hospital and then walk that vaccine to the pharmacy so that people would have hope. Then, I went to Ben Taub Hospital—the public health system, again—and watched people from all backgrounds get vaccinated.

This is a day of hope. We must continue, but we must continue to walk carefully. We must continue to stay distant, get testing, and wear our masks.

There is hope. I am delighted to have been able to be there to say to our constituents that there is hope, Madam Speaker.

JUSTICE FOR HARMONY ALLEN

(Mr. MAST asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MAST. Madam Speaker, Harmony Allen is a veteran who was raped by her Air Force instructor while serving our country.

Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate justice for Harmony Allen.

Now, for two decades, Harmony has been fighting for justice. Despite being convicted in 2017, her rapist was set free on a misconstrued technicality after the Nation's highest military court disregarded Congress' intent and incorrectly applied a 5-year statute of limitations on Harmony's case.

To fix this loophole, I introduced Harmony's Law to ensure that convicted rapists are held accountable. I also worked with the Solicitor General in the Supreme Court to hear Harmony's case and overturn this massive miscarriage of justice.

Madam Speaker, last week, the Supreme Court ruled unanimously in Harmony Allen's favor. The Court's 8-0 decision is a monumental one, and it serves a justice to Harmony that was long overdue. It also prevents the potential early release of hundreds of convicted rapists, making this a victory for all victims of military sexual assault.

LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITIES ON BEHALF OF GEORGIA'S FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

(Mr. HALL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HALL. Madam Speaker, I rise to alert the Chamber to three legislative activities that I am pursuing on behalf of Georgia's Fifth Congressional District and a transportation and infrastructure bill that I will be introducing later this week.

The first will seek to eliminate qualified immunity in police misconduct cases. The second piece of legislation is a constitutional amendment that concerns forced labor. The third piece of legislation is one that would expunge all records of nonviolent offenders impacted by the war on drugs and other various crime bills for any State and local government that is the recipient of Federal crime dollars.

Later this week, I will be introducing legislation to commission a study on a vital transportation corridor in Georgia, which would connect Campbellton Road to the businesses that are right to make greater metro Atlanta their home.

Madam Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to support my pieces of legislation and this project.

RECOGNIZING COHO BREWING COMPANY

(Mr. VAN DREW asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. VAN DREW. Madam Speaker, I would like to recognize Coho Brewing Company in Cape May Court House in south Jersey. Coho was founded by Karen Buckingham in January 2019, inspired by her passion for craft beer.

The brewery's interior design is inspired by all our law enforcement and first responders. Karen hosted fundraisers and cornhole tournaments to raise money for the State police and K-9 units. Each of Coho's beer cans has a
